To,

RE: SPECIAL INVITATION TO WORDCAMP MUKONO - 2026

WordCamp Mukono 2026 is here! I am excited to invite you and your students to a vibrant, community-driven WordPress conference designed with a dedicated teachers track and a students' track in mind specially for you on 13th and 14th March 2026 at Murs Country Resort in Mukono.

As Uganda's education sector increasingly embraces digital transformation, WordPress offers an accessible, powerful, and free tool to create professional websites, e-learning portals, resource repositories, school blogs, and interactive content platforms—without needing advanced coding skills.

Come and benefit from

1. Educator - focused sessions on using WordPress for web authoring, integrating educational tools/plugins, creating secure student portals, building virtual classrooms, and leveraging open-source technologies in the curriculum
2. Practical tips to enhance digital literacy, project-based learning, and 21st-century skills using WordPress
3. Networking with fellow educators, edtech enthusiasts, WordPress experts, and community leaders already using these tools successfully in Ugandan schools

Early bird tickets at just UGX 30,000 (includes full access for 2 days, lunch, coffee breaks, networking, official T-shirt and Free Resources (come with a flash)

Register here: <https://mukono.wordcamp.org/2026/early-bird-ticket/>
Event website : mukono.wordcamp.org/2026/schedule - for full schedule, and speaker lineup

We would be honored to have you with us. Your participation will not only enrich your own practice but also inspire the next generation of digitally confident Ugandan students.

Warm regards,
